Deutsch Receives Key Endorsement from Senate Republican Leader

(Rice Lake, WI) – “Today, I’m pleased to offer my strong support of Dane Deutsch as the Republican candidate for the 25th Senate District – it would be an honor to have him as a member of our Senate Republican team and look forward to his contributions to help us recapture the Senate,” said Senate Minority Leader Scott Fitzgerald, as he announced his formal endorsement of Dane Deutsch for the 25th Senate District.

The 25th State Senate district includes all of Douglas, Bayfield, Ashland, Iron, Washburn counties and parts of Sawyer, Barron, Polk and Burnett counties. Deutsch believes the district deserves better representation from someone who is in touch with the issues of the day.

“I am very grateful for Senator Fitzgerald’s endorsement and know we can make a real difference in the next legislative session,” said Deutsch. “As a small business owner, I know how vital it is to create and retain jobs in our area, and that Wisconsin is in need of new ideas to accomplish that goal – we have a comprehensive job creation plan that can be put into motion on day one.”

Deutsch says legislative Democrats have gone too far, too fast and played too many games with the taxpayers’ money. If elected, he says he’s ready to go to work on initiatives to cut taxes and spending, rein in inefficient government programs, and return to honest budgeting practices.

“Everything after those priorities is a distant second; the people of Wisconsin are tired of elected officials over-promising and under-achieving,” Deutsch said. “We need to get back to the basics and foster growth and opportunity in the private sector, while making sure we maintain our core values in the public sector of helping those who truly need it.”

Over the last several years, Deutsch says the people of the 25th Senate District watched as Democrats have allowed government to expand by leaps and bounds, while most in the work-a-day world have had to do more with less. Senate Republican Leader Fitzgerald says Deutsch’s experience, character, and integrity will be an asset to his team and help bring legislative statesmanship back to the Senate.

“Dane is a take-charge individual and natural leader; we hope to usher in a new day and new Majority party in the Senate next year, and Dane will be a big part of that,” Fitzgerald said.

“The key to turning this economy around is very clear: create jobs and create an environment whereby government can help, rather than hinder, that effort; I appreciate the support of Senator Fitzgerald and the continued support from the people of the 25th Senate District,” Deutsch concluded.
